MADISON HOUSE GETS THE BIG PRICES, TOO

Elmer Deatherage On the Job Constantly For His Patrons—Buyers Take Theo. Kirk "Ove Jumps"

The scene shifted this morning and sales of tobacco were again at the Madison Warehouse in Richmond. High prices are still the rule. Elmer Deatherage is right on the job for his patrons, and buying them the best in the shop, while Col. Jesse Cobb was never in for a fettle, and being personally acquainted probably with every man, woman and child in Madison county, isn't going to let any of them lose a cent of their crops, if he can help it, and he is helping it. Averages right around 30 cents a pound were the rule this morning, with some baskets selling as high as 63 cents a basket.

A feature of the selling Tuesday afternoon was the presence of Col. Theo. Kirk "big gun" of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, on the breaks. Mr. Kirk is a son-in-law of "Old Man" Reynolds and high up in the management. He came over to see how W. S. July, local buyer, is doing, and found him doing well, of course, for he always does. Kirk got enthusiastic over the splendid offerings and took July's place in the buying line for a "spell." He at once began to "bull" the market and some unusually high prices were the immediate result. There are pretty tame bunches of buyers at the local floors anyway and they have instructions to get the stuff for their houses, so even Col. Kirk didn't freeze them, but they went right after him, and he knew he had been on a real market before he quit for the afternoon.

Sales will continue at the Madison House until the floors are cleaned up and then whisk right back to the Home House. A few of the crops sold at the Madison before the Daily Register's report closed this morning, were as follows:

SAYS FRENCH IDEAS ARE DIFFERENT

British Paper Says America and England Agree on Policies—Wilson Goes To Italy Tomorrow.

London, Jan. 1.—"President Wilson returned to France yesterday. It was time he returned," says the Manchester Guardian, commenting on the speeches of Premier Clemenceau and Foreign Minister Pinchon and the difference of their views with those of Wilson. It asserts the differences are "palpable and acute and cannot be glossed over" and that it is best to face them.

Declaring the allies accepted Wilson's fourteen points in their armistice terms and that these points were the policy of America and Great Britain, the Guardian concludes: "If our friends among the allies reject them, well, they will have to make their own peace and dispense with our assistance."

WILSON GOES TO ITALY

Rome, Jan. 1.—President Wilson will arrive at the Italian border tomorrow morning. He will be met by King Victor Emmanuel's aides, American Ambassador Page and the Italian Ambassador to the United States. He will travel in a special royal train and will arrive in Rome Friday morning, where he will be met by the King and Queen, members of the cabinet and civilian authorities and escorted to the square facing the Baths of Diocletian with pomp and ceremony and greeted by the Mayor.

Another Cold Wave Coming

Kentucky—Rain changing to snow this afternoon; fair tonight and Thursday with cold wave.

Washington, Jan. 1.—A cold wave is sweeping eastward today from the west where temperatures are hovering around zero. Officials said much colder weather will overspread the eastern half of the country with 36 hours and cold wave warnings were issued for a section stretching from lower Michigan to Mississippi and northwest of Florida.

Two Deaths and Many More Flu Cases at Union

Two deaths from the flu epidemic are reported from the Union City section this morning. It is said that there are 50 to 75 cases in that immediate community and with the dirt roads practically impassable to any sort of vehicles, the lack of proper medical attention is already being felt.

Nancy Burgin, the little six-year-old daughter of Lee Abner, died at their home near Union at 6 o'clock on Tuesday evening, and the sorrowing parents have the sympathy of all in their deep bereavement. The other death was that of the 17-year-old son of Steve Hugely, colored, who also was a flu victim.

There are 10 cases at the home of Mr. Wm. Dunbar, three of them being schoolteachers. The family of Dr. J. H. Jeffries is down, but he has kept going and taking care of the sick as long as possible. Dr. Jeffries just returned from the army last week, but buckled in and went right to work for the sick of his home as hard as he worked for Uncle Sam.

Russian Reds After Reval and Riga

HIGH WATER BLOCKS YOUNG ARMY OFFICER

Major R. E. Turley, Jr., Forced To Abandon Car In Creek At Red House—All Streams Booming

Raging waters in the creek at Red House, swelled by the incessant rains of the past few days gave Major Robert E. Turley, Jr., of this city a few exciting moments Tuesday afternoon, as he attempted to ford the creek in a car en route to Winchester where he expected to catch a train to rejoin his command at Fortress Monroe, Va. Not realizing how deep the water in the Red House ford had become, the colored driver of the car in which the popular young officer and his wife were riding, started right through the stream. The car plowed gamely right into the middle of the creek, and then "went dead" with water way over the axles, and running boards and almost into the body of the car itself. There was nothing to do but abandon it, so Major Turley waded out into the waters, and picking up his wife in his arms, made his way against the strong current safely ashore. At times the water was fully waist deep and the young officer had a job of it, in addition to giving a tough wetting to a brand new $160 uniform. But little things like this don't faze a youngster who can win his majority in the army from a lieutenant in less than a year, and he got his young bride safely ashore and they spent the night very comfortably as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Rogers nearby. Major Turley only had about 12 hours in which to get back to Fortress Monroe, when he started from Richmond, so the first thing he did this morning was to wire in and explain to his commanding officer why he will perforce have to stay over his leave a trifle.

Reports coming in to town are to the effect that all streams over the county are getting way out of their banks as a result of the continuous downpour. Tobacco growers who intended to bring in their weed to market the latter part of the week are going to be seriously handicapped, especially if they happen to live in the dirt road section.

Another serious result of the high waters which is already being felt is the inability of physicians to get to homes where influenza is raging over the dirt roads. Most physicians now go on their calls in motor cars, and many of the dirt roads are already impassable to cars now.

Troop Ship Goes On Rocks With 2,400 Aboard

New York, Jan. 1.—The troop ship Northern Pacific with 2,400 American officers and soldiers on board went aground early today in the fog at Fire Island. Rescue vessels were sent to the scene and attempted to remove the soldiers, including 1,670 wounded. Weather

LOOM END SALE

Let us bring home to you the "REASON WHY" of this Sale. Your coal bill, for instance, will tell you. Also the thermometer. The weather has been so warm that winter goods have not been needed, so we need to sell a lot of winter goods. That's clear isn't it? And you know we haven't had a bit of winter and you know that winter goods will be a necessity during January, February and March. Wouldn't be surprised about April, either. But the BIG IDEA is winter goods at such BIG REDUCTOINS as you will see when you attend our BIG LOOM END SALE. Announcing this sale is no surprise. It would be a disappointment if we did not, as hundreds upon hundreds of people are waiting anxiously for it. This annual event has been occurring for over 30 years and each recurrence brings thousands of people into that state of happiness occasioned by the procurement of good and reliable merchandise at a big saving. We must sell at once irrespective of loss. We purchased merchandise far below the market value. You people who have been waiting for this big sale, do not delay. Come buy the biggest bargains in seasonable, first class merchandise we have ever offered at any previous sale.

Vinol will Stop a Cough and Break Up a Cold

A constitutional remedy that removes the cause by building up the system. These elements contained in Vinol—Beef and Cod Liver Peptones, Iron, Manganese and Glycophosphates—soon create an energy that throws off the cold and prevents its recurrence. It has given ninety per cent satisfaction for sixteen years. HERE IS PROOF:

Dunn, N.C.
"I suffered with a chronic cold for four months, coughed day and night. Had to keep on working when I was not able to. I saw Vinol advertised and tried it, and I want to tell you it just cured that cold in a short time. It made me eat and sleep well, better every day."—J. C. Bagley, Dunn, N.C.

Lagrange, N.C.
"For years I suffered with a chronic cough, so I could not sleep nights and continued to lose flesh. My druggist asked me to try Vinol. It cured my cough. I can sleep nights and have gained twelve pounds. Vinol is the best tonic and tissue builder I have ever taken."—W. D. Ren, Lagrange, N.C.

Law Firm Dissolves

Announcement has been made of the dissolution of the law firm of Chenault & Wallace, one of the most prominent legal partnerships in this part of the state. Each of the senior members of the firm, Judge J. C. Chenault and Mr. C. C. Wallace, will take his son into partnership with him and for this reason, a partnership that has been entirely satisfactory to all parties is dissolved after five years. J. P. Chenault, who has just returned from the army, will be associated with his father and they will have rooms in the McKee building. Mr. Wallace will continue in the former firm's offices in the Oldham building. As soon as his son, Lieut. Wm. Wallace, who is now with the American army of occupation in Germany, gets home, he will take a partnership with his father.

Says His Boy Was Murdered

An echo of what everyone thought was an accident pure and simple, was heard before County Judge Price yesterday when C. H. Settle, of Berea, section, swore out a warrant for Acie Kindred, 12 years old, charging him with the alleged murder of his son, Smith Settle, 16 years old. The killing occurred some time last June, while the boys were in a room and was said at the time to have been accidental. Mr. Settle was out of the city then and having returned home a few days ago, took up the matter by taking steps to have the alleged slayer of his son prosecuted. The father of young Kindred declares the shooting was accidental.

The Lexington Herald said this morning that 2,000 pounds of tobacco sold on the Richmond market at its opening at an average of 30 cents. Of course the Herald may think this is a 2,000 pound market but no one else does. The opening of the markets here was an inspiring sight, with almost a million pounds on the warehouse floors, and hundreds of farmers and business men watching the sales. Richmond is known far and wide as the best market in this section of the state, all things considered, and this year is going to be no exception, watch that prediction.

YANKS BUSY IN RUSSIA

Archangel, Tuesday, Dec. 31—America ntroops yesterday recaptured the village of Kadish on the middle sector of the northern Russian front and today pushed their lines forward two miles in the direction of Vologda. The advance was in the face of strong resistance. The American casualties were light.

There will be no prayer service at the First Presbyterian church tonight.

BURIAL OF MRS. JACKSON.

Funeral services of Mrs. Mattie Haley Jackson were held at the grave Tuesday afternoon, conducted by her pastor, Dr. M. T. Chandler. Owing to the serious illness of Mrs. Boggs and son, Lynn, the daughter and grandson, it was thought best to have no funeral sermon at the residence as announced in Monday's paper.

NEW TRANSFER FIRM.

Having sold out his wagons and other equipment Mr. Wm. Devore has formed a partnership with Mr. Louis Hardin in the hauling business. The firm name will be the Richmond Transfer Company and they will have a auto truck and be prepared to do all sorts of hauling and take care of business entrusted to them in first class style. 24 3t

"OVER THE TOP,"

Sergeant Empey's Interesting Story of the War.

We had cut a lane about halfway through the wire when, down the center of our line, twang! went an improperly cut wire. We crouched down, cursing under our breath, trembling all over, our knees lacerated from the strands of the cut barbed wire on the ground, waiting for a challenge and the inevitable volley of rifle fire. Nothing happened. I suppose the fellow who cut the barbed wire improperly was the one who had sneezed about half an hour previously. What we wished him would never make his new year a happy one.

Receiving First Aid.

The officer, in my opinion, at the noise of the wire should have given the four-tap signal, which meant, "On your own, get back to your trenches as quickly as possible," but again he must have relied on the spelt that Old Pepper had given us in the dugout. "Personally I believe that that part of the German trench is unoccupied." Anyway, we got careless, but not so careless that we sang patriotic songs or made any unnecessary noise.

During the intervals of falling star shells we carried on with our wire cutting until at last we succeeded in getting through the German barbed wire. At this point we were only ten feet from the German trenches. If we were discovered, we were like rats in a trap. Our way was cut off unless we ran along the wire to the narrow lane we had cut through. With our hearts in our mouths we waited for the three-tap signal to rush the German trench. Three taps had gotten about halfway down the line when suddenly about ten to twenty German star shells were fired all along the trench and landed in the barbed wire in rear of us, turning night into day and silhouetting us against the wall of light made by the flares. In the glaring light we were confronted by the following unpleasant scene.

All along the German trench, at about three-foot intervals, stood a big Prussian guardsman with his rifle at the aim, and then we found out why we had not been challenged when the man sneezed and the barbed wire had been improperly cut. About three feet in front of the trench they had constructed a single fence of barbed wire and we knew our chances were one thousand to one of returning alive. We could not rush their trench on account of this second defense. Then in front of me the challenge, "Halt," given in English rang out, and one of the finest things I have ever heard on the western front took place.

From the middle of our line some Tommy answered the challenge with, "Aw, go to h—l." It must have been the man who had sneezed or who had improperly cut the barbed wire; he wanted to show Fritz that he could die game. Then came the volley. Machine guns were turned loose and several bombs were thrown in our rear. The Boche in front of me was looking down his sight. This fellow might have, under ordinary circumstances, been handsome, but when I viewed him from the front of his rifle he had the goblin of childhood imagination released to the world.

From Russell Peyton.

Mrs. Claud Harris received a letter from her brother, Russell Peyton, a few days after the armistice was signed. It will be read with interest here:

Somewhere in France, Nov. 15.
Dear Sister:—I will try and answer your kind and loving letter I received yesterday and was so glad to hear from you. Well, sis, this leaves me well and feeling fine. I am glad I got your pictures, but you were mistaken about them looking fine. I was not feeling good at the time. I am getting a good many of your letters now, and have been answering them as soon as I can. Don't you all worry about the boys over here. Uncle Sam will take good care of them.

Mother was telling me that Walter was going to get married. I guess he will want his father with him. Tell mother if the corner lot there, facing both corners, is for sale to buy it. Tell Opal that the Germans are whipped. So I can't get one for her. But I have some German money we found in a dug out I will bring back with me for her. Tell Claud no one could make much hunting here. What did Robert say about the $10 I said I would give him for going to school every day? I sure did hate to hear about Zeke Moberly. When you receive any letters from me be sure to let mamma know for she might not get all my letters as some may get lost. I received twelve letters yesterday and will answer every one as soon as I can. I am writing outside but it is so cool I will have to move in by the fire. I have plenty of good tobacco and good cigars, so I am all O. K. I have to go to work at three o'clock and it is now twelve. I will finish this and then go get my dinner. Well, this is French paper I got from a Frenchman. I see Wink and some of the Richmond boys quite often. I don't know very much to write. Give my love to all. I am glad the Huns are whipped so the boys will be home some sweet day. Will ring off for this time, hoping to hear from you soon. Your loving brother,

RUSSELL PEYTON,
Headquarters Troop 6th Division Reg. A. P. O. 777, A. E. F. France.

Farm and Stock News.

Wm. H. Haley, Jr., of Paris, purchased 41 head of feeding cattle in Mt. Sterling at prices ranging from $8 to $11 per hundred pounds.

Chester Gore, of Bourbon county, bought from John L. Vice, of Mt. Sterling, this week, five head of 600 pound cattle at $10 per hundred.

J. J. Richardson, Jr., hunting on the farm of his father, John J. Richardson, two miles east of Nicholasville, killed a large swan Friday which was swimming on the pond. It was a beautiful snow white bird and its wings measured six feet eight inches from tip to tip. A photograph was made of young Richardson and the bird.

The Madisonville Hustler says: Lucien Hancock, who lives a mile or two from town is doubtless the best potato raiser of the county. Besides what has been used in the family, he has harvested 573 bushels of sweet potatoes and 252 bushels of Irish potatoes, making a total of 825 bushels. For these he received $2 per bushel. His crop will net him $1,625.

James Long, of near Paris, realized $404.50 for a crop of 780 pounds of tobacco and a lot of Irish potatoes all raised on half an acre of land. Mr. Long planted his potato crop and when the tubers had gotten sufficient growth he planted tobacco between the rows. The tobacco brought $41.30 per hundred pounds, of $314.50, and the potatoes sold for $90, making the total sales from the half acre of land bring in $404.50.
